

(Above: "Friesian Fantasy" by Rosetta – 2016 1st Place in 3D Bronze)

Prospectus – 2017 Equine Art in the Park

Rocky Mountain Horse Expo 8th Annual Art Show & Sale

March 10 – 12, 2017 / National Western Complex, Denver, Colorado

ENTRY DEADLINE: January 15, 2017

Equine Art in the Park is a juried fine art exhibit and sale celebrating the spirit of the horse. The show features contemporary original work including paintings, pastels, drawings, mixed-media, photography, pottery, and sculpture/3-D.

Cash prizes are awarded to 1st Place selections in categories of Photography, 2-D Media, and 3-D Media. Award placement in 1st, 2nd, 3rd and Honorable Mention is made by a panel of judges in each category.

- Up to THREE digital submissions are accepted and can be emailed to equineartinthepark@gmail.com by JAN 15, 2017.
- Work should primarily emphasize Equine Subject Matter (Horses, Donkeys, Mules, etc. Tack and people are acceptable, but emphasis should remain fixed on equine subject matter overall.)
- Digital submissions should be JPEG Format no larger than 150 resolution and no larger than 10" high or wide and must be accompanied by the Artist Form & Payment.
- Entry fee is $45 for up to three submissions per category.
- All entries must be original work and available for showing and sale, if selected. One or all three entries may be selected for showing.
- Original work in 2D. Max size of 40" including frame. Sculpture no larger than Life Size. All work must be ready for gallery quality display (matted, framed, etc.)
- Selected work must be in Colorado no later than MARCH 3, 2017 (Further instructions will be communicated for selected work.)
- All selected Artists & Guests will be invited to a formal artist's reception on the night of the awards. (Date/time yet to be determined.)
- Sales: 40% to Colorado Horse Council to benefit horse welfare; remaining goes to artist.
- Questions? Call Bill Scebbi, Pro Tem Coordinator, 303-292-4981 or email equineartinthepark@gmail.com